

ST. JUDE MEDICAL CENTER - CLINICAL RECORD

Patient Name: John Doe
Age/Gender: 45 / Male
Date of Visit: February 14, 2026

CHIEF COMPLAINT

Patient presented to the ER with complaints of severe chest pain that radiates to the left arm. He also reports acute shortness of breath and an intense headache that started 2 hours ago.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Vitals: Heart Rate 112 bpm, BP 145/95 mmHg, SpO2 93%, Temp 98.6F.
Physical exam reveals diaphoresis and mild respiratory distress. Patient appears anxious.

CLINICAL ASSESSMENT

1. Rule out Acute Coronary Syndrome (ACS).
2. Suspected Hypertensive Urgency.
3. Monitor for dizziness and nausea.